An Italian Christmas Night

Andrea Del Principe

2023 Christmas Tour

When the other kids spent time to play soccer (I am Italian...) I was taking singing lessons. All my free time and earnings was dedicated to music and better my singing, listening and playing everything from Queen to Rolling Stones to Pavarotti

Now when I am abroad to perform I miss so much my Family, my wife Anna ad our daughter Gaia. My wife supports me in every possible way and loves me more than I deserve. When our daughter was six we discovered that she sings beautifully. Now she is 16 and when is not at school we do concerts together.

This is a message for who is reading these words: I truly hope to see you in one of my concerts. I would like to share all my passion and my heart, making your night a special night in a wonderful Christmas atmosphere

“When I was four, standing on the living room's armchair, I used to sing along with the records of Gigli and Enrico Caruso, trying to make a voice ‘big’ like theirs. It took more effort to stand balanced on my little legs, yet my will was already strong. This is the first memory of the passion I have for singing, a passion that burns within me every day of my life.”

Anrea Del Principe performed at Cars on 5th this year to rave reviews. Cars on 5th supports St. Matthew's House in its work to provide programs and services for those struggling with homelessness and hunger in Southwest Florida..Andrea's Italian melodies were a perfect combination with our cars event.

Andrea co-wrote and sang the Miss Italia USA Anthem and appeared in our TV programs for RAI ad CIBOR TV. He is a rare examp'le of hard working, humility and Extraordinary Talent.

When I wrote 'Canto del sole inesauribile', a song on words of the Holy Father John Paul II, I asked my friend Andrea to make a draft recording I submitted to Placido Domingo and Andrea Bocelli. They loved the song and recorded in word successful Album. Thank you Andrea!
